

which says it represents 10 companies with manufacturing plants in 13 states.

Johnson said she had enlisted high-powered help from Senate Majority Leader Trent Lott and from the two lawmakers with the most say on trade policy: House Ways and Means Committee Chairman Bill Archer, R-Texas, and Senate Finance Committee Chairman William Roth, R-Del.

Using the threat of a legislative mandate as pressure, the issue may well be resolved "in a side discussion with Customs," she said.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE RAY THORNTON AND THE HONORABLE BLANCHE LAMBERT LINCOLN ON THEIR RETIREMENT FROM CONGRESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. DICKEY] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DICKEY. Mr. Speaker, I want to take this moment to honor two of my distinguished colleagues from Arkansas who are retiring from Congress; first, RAY THORNTON.

RAY has served a very honorable career in public service. He served 4 years in the Navy, during which he saw combat on the U.S.S. Philippines Sea during the Korean war. He served as deputy prosecutor in Pulaski and Perry Counties in Arkansas for 2 years and as the attorney general for 3 years.

In 1973, RAY was elected to Congress to represent the Fourth District of Arkansas and later in 1990 was elected to the Second District. During his 24 years in Congress, RAY sat on the Committee on Agriculture; the Committee on the Judiciary; the Committee on Science and Technology, serving as Chair of the Subcommittee on Science, Research, and Technology; and the Committee on Appropriations. This was a committee that I have had the honor of serving on with RAY.

With RAY's leaving and DAVID PRYOR's leaving, we also are losing two of the three people who are representing the Fourth District of Arkansas, or who have. I am doing that at this present time. He also served as president of Arkansas State University in Jonesboro and the president of the university system of the whole State.

It would be impossible to touch on all of RAY's accomplishments over his long career in public service, but I would like to relay some philosophies to which RAY adhered when legislating for our country.

RAY THORNTON once said: "I want America to be the mightiest nation on earth militarily, the strongest economically, and the strongest in terms of personal freedom, dignity, and democracy." RAY selflessly served with the goal of improving our Nation's productivity, education, and infrastructure and, I must say, in a very gentlemanly and respectful way.

RAY recognized the can-do spirit that makes our Nation great. He knew that in order to accomplish America's goals, the process must be aimed at stimulating the combined efforts of the States, the private sector, and the cooperative groups of individuals and institutions.

The second colleague I would like to recognize is BLANCHE LAMBERT LINCOLN.

BLANCHE and I both came to Congress in January of 1993, she being from Helena, AR. BLANCHE has been a role model for all of us in the way she has served, repeatedly going to bat for the First District of Arkansas, conscientiously serving on her committees and subcommittees, tackling complex legislation head-on, putting people above politics, handling her responsibilities with tact and grace and with a sense of humor and good spirit.

BLANCHE has served on the Committee on Commerce, where she has earned a reputation as a champion for rural causes, ranging from rural water to health care and telecommunications access. She has worked hard to eliminate the Federal budget deficit, claiming that she does not want to pass it on to the next generation, and she has worked to break the cycle of poverty and put welfare dependents back to work.

BLANCHE continues to be a role model as she leaves office. In this day and age when so many other priorities come before family, BLANCHE has made a very selfless decision to leave this demanding occupation and return home to rear her twin boys, Reese and Bennett.

I was impressed when BLANCHE was once asked when she would return to her career, and she answered, "When my boys know the difference between right and wrong." We all need to learn a lesson from BLANCHE LAMBERT LINCOLN in setting priorities. She will always be remembered as a trailblazer, whether in Congress or acting as a wife and mom.

I wish these two beloved Members of Congress all the best, and hope to see both of you in Arkansas from time to time. We will miss you.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE JIM ROSS LIGHTFOOT ON HIS RETIREMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. WOLF] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. WOLF. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Louisiana [Mr. LIVINGSTON].

(Mr. LIVINGSTON asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LIVINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I will be brief but sincere in my remarks. I thank my friend for taking out this time.

Mr. Speaker, we are here to say bon voyage, good luck, and best wishes to our good friend, the gentleman from Iowa, JIM ROSS LIGHTFOOT, the distinguished Congressman from Iowa, who has been with us since he was elected to Congress in 1984.

JIM ROSS is running for the Senate, and we certainly wish him lots of success in that endeavor. We do not know why he wants to aspire to the other body when he has got a great life here, and he has a lot of friends, and we enjoy having him here. But the fact is, he has made that decision, and he has lots of talents that he will take with him.

He grew up on a farm in Iowa. He has a wonderful family. His wife Nancy and his four children I know are wishing him well and working hard for him in his current effort.

JIM ROSS and I, I went in the Navy after high school and he went in the Army. I guess that gives us some reason for our great friendship that we have had over the years. After he got out of the Army, he worked for IBM. He was transferred to Oklahoma, worked as a police officer, then a small businessman in Texas, and ultimately as a broadcaster in Iowa.

I really believe it was in that role that he kind of learned a trait that made him much like that fellow that wrote the book under the pseudonym "Anonymous," because I have suspected for many, many years that JIM ROSS LIGHTFOOT is really that voice, the anonymous voice, on Motel 6 ads.

You listen to him, he is the same guy. But whether he is or not, I just have to thank him for his dedicated devoted service to the Committee on Appropriations and to the U.S. Congress. He served as chairman of the Subcommittee on Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government over the last 2 years. He served on the Appropriations Subcommittees on Foreign Operations and Transportation, as I know my friend from Virginia will talk about, and he served as co-chair of the law enforcement caucus because of his law enforcement background.

He represented his constituents with great distinction and honor and dignity, and he will take that dignity with him wherever he goes. I personally wish him well. I want to express my sincere thanks to him for his wonderful work over these last 2 years in assisting, as part of a team to literally transform America, to show America that we do not have to have ever larger, bigger, more expensive government,
